Canadian Mental Health Association

The Brain Injury Program at CMHA is part of a provincial brain injury network. Service Coordinators support adults and their families who are experiencing the effects of an acquired brain injury.

Canadian Mental Health Association

The Brain Injury Program at CMHA is part of a provincial brain injury network. Service Coordinators support adults and their families who are experiencing the effects of an acquired brain injury.

- People living with a permanent, diagnosed, acquired brain injury
- In need of short term supports
- Not currently receiving supports from Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PDD) or in a full time support facility
- Live in Central Alberta
- Able to live somewhat independently
- Are currently over the age of 18

Scope of Support Finances

- Rehabilitation
- Basic Needs Legal Issues
- Employment
- Education
- Adjusting to Your Situation

How Do I Access This Program?

Mental health for all

- People living with a permanent, diagnosed, acquired brain injury
- In need of short term supports
- Not currently receiving supports from Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PDD) or in a full time support facility
- Live in Central Alberta
- Able to live somewhat independently
- Are currently over the age of 18

Canadian Mental Health Association Central Alberta

Mental health for all

Scope of Support

- Finances
 - Rehabilitation
- Basic NeedsLegal Issues
- Employment
- Education
- Adjusting to Your Situation

How Do I Access This Program?

Referrals may be made through a number of sources, including directly contacting our office at the number listed. Other agencies may make a referral on your behalf, The referral form is a single page, and is quick and easy to fill out.

- People living with a permanent, diagnosed, acquired brain injury
- In need of short term supports
- Not currently receiving supports from Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PDD) or in a full time support facility
- Live in Central Alberta
- Able to live somewhat independently
- Are currently over the age of 18

Canadian Mental Health Association Central Alberta

Mental health for all

Scope of Support

- Finances
 - Rehabilitation
- Basic NeedsLegal Issues
- Employment
- Education
- Adjusting to Your Situation

How Do I Access This Program?

Referrals may be made through a number of sources, including directly contacting our office at the number listed. Other agencies may make a referral on your behalf, The referral form is a single page, and is quick and easy to fill out.

- People living with a permanent, diagnosed, acquired brain injury
- In need of short term supports
- Not currently receiving supports from Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PDD) or in a full time support facility
- Live in Central Alberta
- Able to live somewhat independently
- Are currently over the age of 18

Scope of Support Finances

- Rehabilitation
- Basic Needs Legal Issues
- Employment
- Education
- Adjusting to Your Situation

How Do I Access This Program?

Mental health for all

Canadian Mental Health Association

The Brain Injury Program at CMHA is part of a provincial brain injury network. Service Coordinators support adults and their families who are experiencing the effects of an acquired brain injury.

Canadian Mental Health Association

The Brain Injury Program at CMHA is part of a provincial brain injury network. Service Coordinators support adults and their families who are experiencing the effects of an acquired brain injury.

